DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-7 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-44 of copending Application No. 10/540,825. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both applications teach an electromagnetic noise suppressor with magnetic layer and composite layer.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Senda et al. US 5,990,417.

As to Claim 1, Senda et al. '417 discloses an electromagnetic noise absorbing material and relationship of relative magnetic permeability (Col. 1, Line 24-34) and further discloses an imaginary part of a relative magnetic permeability more than 102 in the band of a few hundred MHz (Col. 24, Line 62-65). Senda et al. '417 does not disclose the imaginary part H of a complex magnetic permeability at 8 GHz higher than the imaginary part L of a complex magnetic permeability at 5 GHz. However, these properties are inherent because the applicants and the inventors teach virtually identical structures with similar materials. The physical properties of similar materials will inherently be similar. The burden of proof is shifted to the applicant to show the prior art properties are different from those claimed. See In re Fitzgerald, 619 F. 2d 67, 205 USPQ 594 (CCPA 1980).

As to Claim 2, Senda et al. '417 disclose a method in which an alloy of magnetic substance particles are mixed into a non magnetic material (applicants binding agent) and would constitute a composite material (Col. 11, Line 53-56).

As to Claim 3, Senda et al. '417 discloses different manufacturing methods for depositing the magnetic material including physical vapor deposition (Col. 11, Line 51-52).

As to Claim 4, 5, 6 & 7, Senda et al. '417 discloses the use of phenol resins, epoxy resins, (applicants hardening resins) vinyl resins, acrylate resins, or synthetic rubber (applicants resin or rubber) (Col. 15, Line 24-25).
